

2006 Yorktown Events Calendar Now Available

Yorktown, March 27 –Looking for new and exciting events to enjoy with your family and friends this year? If so, be sure to pick up a copy of the 2006 Yorktown Event Calendar. This free calendar is packed with event information for the entire year. 2006 marks the 225th anniversary of America's decisive Revolutionary War victory at Yorktown, which will be celebrated October 19-22 with "A Salute to the Military." Re-enactments, parades, patriotic ceremonies, hands-on activities, live performances, a juried art show, tall ship displays and fireworks will take place at the Yorktown National Battlefield, Riverwalk Landing and the Yorktown Victory Center.

Among the special events and exhibits taking place in Yorktown this year are the Memorial Day weekend celebration, "Shagging on the Riverwalk," Beach Music concert series, Independence Day celebration, Summer Concert Series at Grace Churchyard, Labor Day weekend celebration featuring the annual Virginia Symphony Concert, "Rhythms on the Riverwalk" concert series, and the annual Yorktown Celebrates Christmas events.

The event calendar is published and funded as a service jointly by the Celebrate Yorktown Committee and York County Tourism and Events. Complimentary copies of the 2006 Event Calendar are available at The Gallery at York Hall, 301 Main Street, at the corner of Main and Ballard Streets and at the following locations: York County Public Information Office, 224 Ballard Street, York County Parks and Recreation, 100 County Drive. Event calendars may also be viewed online at www.yorkcounty.gov/tourism. For more information on Yorktown events, call (757) 890-3500.
